A TERRIBLE STORM

COMMUNICATION BADLY CRIPPLED

Blizzard Was Preceded by a Fog and Drizzling Rain That Coated the Wires With Ice.

Three Men Were Killed in Chicago and One at Muncie, Ind.—The Loss to Property Is Reported to Be Very Large.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—One of the most severe storms of recent years has raged throughout the territory lying between the Rocky mountains and the great lakes since early Tuesday morning and has caused much trouble to street car companies, railroads and telegraph companies.

The latter were the greater sufferers, for the blizzard which swept through the west and northwest during the last 24 hours was preceded by a heavy fog and drizzling rain which made the wires almost unworkable. The intense cold and terrific gale that followed close upon the fog, coated the wires with ice and later in the day threw poles to the ground, crippling the companies badly. Railroad trains were badly delayed all through the west, some of them being 24 hours late. Street car traffic in all the cities of the west and northwest was practically at a standstill at some time during the day.

Storm Still Raging.

At Chicago and east of here Tuesday night the storm was still raging with the center of the storm being apparently between Chicago and Cleveland. Reports from Kansas City early in the day were that the storm extended from the middle of Missouri as far south as Indian Territory and was accompanied throughout its entire extent by high winds and snow which on the level would have been about a foot in depth. It was drifted so badly by the gale, however, that in nearly all the cities of Nebraska, Kansas and Western Missouri street car traffic was at a standstill by noon. All trains through that part of the country were hopelessly behind their schedule. The storm had reached Eastern Missouri by noon and the temperature in St. Louis went down 20 degrees in two hours, while the wind, blowing at 40 miles an hour, piled the snow up in the streets in great drifts. At Omaha and Des Moines, conditions similar to those in Kansas City were reported. All throughout Western Iowa the fury of the storm raged. All trains in this section were reported one to six hours late.

Heavy Fall of Snow.

The storm reached westward from St. Paul until it covered almost the entire northwest and from the Dakotas, Eastern Montana, Wyoming, Northern Michigan and Wisconsin the story was the same from all points. The wires were down in all directions, the snow was falling in dense volumes and driven by a high northwest gale was filling the streets and railroad cuts.

In the south conditions were somewhat better, the snow in many places being changed to a heavy rainfall, which was preceded by thunder and lightning and followed by high winds. Nashville, Louisville, New Orleans, Montgomery and Memphis all reported exceedingly heavy rains, a rapidly falling thermometer and terrific winds.

In its extent the storm was the most widespread of any during the last 15 years. Counting the fog as a component part of the storm, it stretched clear from the Rocky mountains to New York and from Winnipeg to New Orleans.

The fatalities reported as due to the storm were four men killed, three in this city and one at Muncie, Ind.

Assumed Hurricane Violence.

The storm struck Chicago shortly after noon and increased with great rapidity until it had assumed hurricane violence at 5:30 o'clock, when the wind tore through the downtown streets at the rate of 72 miles an hour. It fell away after that and by 7 o'clock had dropped to 50 miles an hour, where it remained throughout the night, with occasional gusts that would howl through the streets with the force of a cyclone, tearing down signs, smashing in plate glass windows and in many sections of the downtown district hurling pedestrians from their feet and overturning light delivery wagons.

In all parts of the city trees were blown down, chimneys toppled over and several frame shacks were leveled with the ground.

Between noon and 7 o'clock in the evening the mercury dropped from 34 to 11 and was still falling.

The late reports from Wisconsin are that the storm was the most severe ever known in that section of the country. Damage in the city of Madison is already estimated at $100,000. In Indiana the damage done by the storm was especially heavy in the oil fields. The loss on derricks alone in the neighborhood of Muncie is placed at $200,000 and at $50,000 around Portland.

RAN INTO A FREIGHT TRAIN.

One Man Killed and Ten Injured Near Fort Wayne, Ind.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Dec. 28.—A Wash passenger train, east-bound, ran into a freight train on a switch three miles west of this city Tuesday night, killing one man and injuring ten others.

The dead: Albert M. Ballard, of Peru, Ind., engineer of the freight train. The injured: Charles Ernest, of Peru, Ind., engineer of the passenger train, leg and arm bruised. W. H. Cox, Peru, engineer of passenger train, head cut. Mrs. Roman Zoeller, Fort Wayne, nose broken and face bruised. Miss Anna Dewald, of Fort Wayne; Conductor C. R. McBride, of Toledo, and H. Bishop, Robert White and H. J. Hulett, of Detroit, and E. H. Watt, of Kansas City, were slightly injured. Bishop and White are colored porters.

The wreck was caused by the blowing out of a switch light during the heavy wind and the engineer of the freight train running over the switch where he was to have waited for the passenger train.

THE SUICIDE IDENTIFIED.

She Was Miss Cecelia Moss, of Lancaster, Pa.

New York, Dec. 28.—Jockey John Hoar informed the police Tuesday night that the young woman known here as Cecil Hall, who jumped to her death Monday night from the window of a lodging house in West 46th street, was in his company Monday afternoon and that he went with her to the door of the house. There he left her, he said, and about an hour later he called her up by telephone. She appeared to be in good spirits, he said, and asked him to write to her. He admitted that he met the young woman while he was riding at a recent Bennings meeting and that he came to this city with her at the close of the meeting.

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 28.—The young woman calling herself Cecil Hall, who was killed by plunging from the third-story window of a lodging house in New York Monday night, has been identified as Cecelia Moss, aged 23 years, of this city.

SILVER BULLION SCARCE.

All That Is Available in the Country Has Been Exhausted.

Philadelphia, Dec. 28.—John H. Landis, superintendent of the United States mint here, announced Tuesday that the available silver bullion of the country has been exhausted. Unless congress takes prompt action to relieve the situation by authorizing the purchase of more silver bullion for coining purposes or by accepting a suggested temporary remedy, he said, commerce will be greatly hampered next year as a result of a $10,000,000 shortage in small silver coin. The prevailing conditions of the country's collateral also entails wholesale discharge of mint employees to take effect on January 1 and unless relief is obtained from congress, the regular mint force will be cut down to a nominal number within the next few months.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS.

He Was Initiated Into the Secrets of Masonry in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 28.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, vice president-elect, was initiated into the secrets of Masonry Tuesday. He took the first two degrees Tuesday in Oriental lodge No. 500 at the lodge hall and Tuesday night in the Scottish Rite temple he was given the third degree by the lodge before a distinguished crowd of Indiana Masons, numbering 1,200. The initiation of Senator Fairbanks was made the occasion of one of the most notable gatherings of Masons ever held in Indiana.

Big Gift to the Church.

New York, Dec. 28.—George McCullough Miller, secretary of the trustees of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, announced Tuesday that the sum of $600,000 has been subscribed by an anonymous donor for the completion of the choir of the cathedral.

Ex-President Sam Sentenced.

Port Au Prince, Hayti, Dec. 28.—The court has rendered a judgment in default condemning ex-President Sam to imprisonment for life at hard labor for the alleged issue of fraudulent bonds. Madame Sam is sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment.

AFFIDAVIT ARRIVES

WILL MAKE SECOND APPLICATION

Dr. Chadwick Will Be Arrested Immediately Upon His Arrival and the Start Will Be Made at Once For Cleveland.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 28.—Sheriff Barry, of Cuyahoga county, Ohio, arrived here Tuesday evening with the affidavits necessary to correct the requisition of Gov. Herrick, of Ohio, for a warrant authorizing him to take Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick out of this state to Cleveland to answer the charge of complicity in forging the name of Andrew Carnegie to the note for $5,000,000 alleged to have been used as security by his wife, Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick. He will present the affidavit to Judge Joyce, the governor's pardon and requisition clerk, from whom he expects to obtain the warrant which he failed to secure upon his first visit Monday.

Sheriff Barry received the missing affidavit in New York Tuesday afternoon and immediately came to Albany. Arriving shortly after 9 o'clock he met, by appointment, Judge John T. McDonough, former secretary of state, whom he has engaged as local counsel in the Chadwick matter.

Affidavit Incorporated in Application.

With the judge he went over the papers and then had the affidavit incorporated in the application, which he will present. When asked why he did not immediately apply for the warrant permitting him to convey Dr. Chadwick from the state, the sheriff replied that there was no hurry, since the Pretoria, on which the prospective prisoner sailed from Europe, is not due here until Thursday or Friday.

"When Dr. Chadwick arrives on the steamship I will be awaiting to arrest him."

He was asked whether any application for a requisition had been received from the Boston authorities and seemed relieved when he learned that this was the only request.

"I don't expect any difficulty now in taking Dr. Chadwick to Cleveland," he continued. "We shall start as soon as he reaches this side of the Atlantic."

The affidavit received from Cleveland and required by the governor's requisition clerk before he would grant the warrant, is signed by the district attorney of Cuyahoga county and is a sworn transcript from the minutes of the grand jury that indicted Dr. Chadwick for complicity in forgery. The witness whose testimony it contains is Iri Reynolds, of the Wade Park bank, of Cleveland. Mr. Reynolds declared that Dr. Chadwick was in Cleveland on March 5, 1903, when the forgery is alleged to have been committed.

PEACEMAKER KILLED.

His Throat Was Cut From Ear to Ear By a Boy.

Stockton, Ala., Dec. 28.—Babe Taylor, aged 17, got into a difficulty with Burns Hall, a neighbor, and inflicted a cut which may prove fatal. W. B. Catrett, an old and highly respected citizen, who was standing nearby, went up to separate the combatants, when Taylor turned on him, cutting his throat from ear to ear. Catrett fell to the ground and expired in a few minutes. Taylor was remanded to jail without bail.

TIRED OF BEING A CRIPPLE.

Chicago Man Bought a Coffin and Then Killed Himself.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—Buying a coffin ostensibly for a friend, Leroy K. Nesbit, a banker, committed suicide Tuesday in an undertaking establishment. Scribbled on a card in the banker's pocket was a note saying: "I am tired of being a cripple." Nesbit had a shriveled leg, and had spent thousands of dollars in a vain attempt to effect a cure.

Nine Officers and 65 Men Killed.

Tokio, Dec. 28.—The navy department publishes a list of nine officers and 65 men who were killed while on special duty, and it is presumed that another cruiser has been mined and sunk or damaged.

Palace and sleeping cars go back only to the close of the civil war, the air-brake to 1868, and vestibuled trains to 1886.

MARCUM DAMAGE TRIAL.

The Case Was Resumed After a Couple of Days' Recess.

Winchester, Ky., Dec. 28.—After a recess of a couple of days the trial of the Marcum case was resumed Tuesday and about 20 witnesses for the defense answered to their names.

So far the witnesses examined Tuesday have been clerks in Hargis Bros.' store. They agree that when Marcum was killed Tom White came across the street at once from the courthouse; that Judge Hargis ordered the courthouse searched and that the searching party found nothing; that Hargis expressed a desire to find out who did the killing and a willingness to issue a warrant for his arrest. Capt. Ewen, who was with Marcum when he was killed, repeatedly said he did not see who did the killing.

The testimony Tuesday afternoon in the Marcum case was not of a sensational character. Several witnesses testified as to the familiar facts to the killing of Marcum, that Judge Hargis ordered the courthouse searched without effect, that he expressed an earnest desire to capture the assassin, that Ewen declared that he did not know who killed Marcum and other facts that have been previously brought out.

Several witnesses declared that the reputation of Capt. Ewen for truth and veracity was not good and the moral character of Ruck Cottongane and wife was bad.

Several members of the special grand jury which investigated the death of Marcum and indicted Tom White and Curt Jett for the crime were present to testify that the testimony of Henry Noble on this trial was different from that given before that body. Judge Benton decided that they might testify; that they were members of that body and that Noble was before it, but that the secrets of the grand jury room should be kept inviolate and should not be made public.

BULLETS ENDED HIS LIFE.

A Kentucky Miner Waylaid and Killed at Middlesboro.

Middlesboro, Ky., Dec. 28.—John Locust, who worked at the mines of the Nicholson Coal Co., was waylaid and killed Tuesday night after dark. Locust was walking along the public highway, which runs between this city and Hartrant, Tenn., when he was fired on by unknown parties. Three bullets pierced his breast. No one witnessed the tragedy, but the shots were heard. Locust had money on his person and his pockets were rifled. It is thought robbery was the intention of the assassins, several of whom are believed to have been in the murderous gang.

TRIED TO PROTECT SISTER.

A Boy of Fourteen Was Stabbed By Her Husband.

Owingsville, Ky., Dec. 28.—Reports from Harrison Tuesday state that while Calvin Lawson, aged 14, was trying to protect his sister, Mrs. Willie Milner, from being beaten by her drunken husband, he was attacked by Milner and stabbed so badly with a knife that his life is despaired of. Milner was arrested.

Arrested as He Left the Pen.

Paducah, Ky., Dec. 28.—Thomas Stewart, about 30, was arrested at the Eddyville penitentiary as he walked out after serving a three-years' sentence for burglary at Bowling Green and brought to this city Tuesday by Deputy Marshal G. W. Saunders, charged with robbing a post office at West Toledo, O., in March, 1901.

The Caleb Powers Case.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 28.—A petition for rehearing in the court of appeals will be filed by the attorneys for the prosecution in the Caleb Powers case. This has been positively determined and much speculation as to the outcome is being indulged in.

New Furniture Factory.

Owingsville, Ky., Dec. 28.—A syndicate of Pennsylvania capitalists has made a deal for the erection of a big furniture factory in Salt Lick, this county, which will cost $250,000 and employ 600 men. The company owns immense timber tracts.

A Miniature Cyclone.

Georgetown, Ky., Dec. 28.—A miniature cyclone struck this vicinity at noon Tuesday. A corner of the Presbyterian church was blown off, and merchants' signs went sailing down the street. The temperature rapidly fell many degrees.

Centenarian Dead.

Olive Hill, Ky., Dec. 28.—David Wade, aged 117, probably the oldest man in Kentucky, is dead at his home in this county. He was born August 20, 1787, was married three times and has grandchildren to the fifth generation.

THE PAPER TRUST.

CHARGED WITH VIOLATION OF LAW

Petition Alleges That Defendants Combined to Control the Sale of Output of Various Mills.

The Court Is Asked to Declare the Alleged Combination Unlawful and That It Be Enjoined From Continuing the Trust.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 28.—Attorney General Moody, for the United States, through United States District Attorney Haupt, and Frank B. Kellogg and James M. Beck, special assistant attorney general of the United States, Tuesday afternoon filed a question in the United States district court in which he makes the General Paper Co. as principal defendant, and a number of other paper and pulp companies, comprising what is known as the paper trust, as party defendants in a suit to enjoin them and restrain them from doing business through the General Paper Co. as the sales agent, in violation of the provisions of sections 1 and 2 of the act of congress, approved July 2, entitled an "Act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies."

The petition alleges that the defendants entered into an agreement to combine and control the sale of the product of the different companies through the General Paper Co. in that the General Paper Co. regulated prices, sales and shipment and territory for the sale of the same and after deducting operating expenses of the General Paper Co., divided the surplus among the members of the corporation.

The General Paper Co.

The petition recites that the General Paper Co. was chartered under the laws of Wisconsin May 26, 1900, with a capital stock of $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares, which were distributed among and are now held by certain of the defendants named, and that later the others were taken into a combination naming them in the order in which they entered the combination, and goes on to state that the General Paper Co. became the exclusive selling agent of the defendants with absolute power to control the output of the various mills, fix the price of all paper sold and to whom and upon what terms and conditions the paper should be sold and into what states and places it shall be shipped and what publishers and other customers each mill shall supply.

Price of Paper Product Increased.

The petition alleges that in consequence of the combination all competition in the manufacture, sale and distribution of paper had been restricted, and the price of all paper products greatly increased, particularly that of news print paper, which has been increased about 50 per cent. It further states that no dealers, or newspapers or other consumers in the territory west of the Mississippi, with the exception of certain newspaper publishers in St. Louis and Chicago, can purchase any paper except directly through the General Paper Co., and then only upon terms dictated by the latter.

The court is asked to declare the alleged combination unlawful and that the defendants be perpetually enjoined from doing any act in pursuance of the same.

That the General Paper Co. be enjoined from acting as sales agent for the other defendants and that the latter be enjoined from continuing their arrangement with the General Paper Co.

Peace Society Organized.

Pittsburg, Dec. 28.—With the adoption of a constitution, the Pittsburg Peace society was formed. Another meeting will be held January 10 for the election of officers. Andrew Carnegie has consented to accept the office of honorary president.

Dense Fog at New York.

New York, Dec. 28.—So dense was the blanket of fog which hung over the harbor all day Tuesday that business at the government quarantine station was almost entirely suspended. Not a single steamer arrived.

One Killed, Another Fatally Hurt.

New York, Dec. 28.—Engineer Chas. Heebe was instantly killed, his assistant, Daniel Ferrier, probably fatally injured, when the cylinder head of the great power engine in the Chelsea jute mills in Brooklyn blew out.

It is said that the Turks were the first to bury their dead in cemeteries adorned with ornamental headstones.

EVENING BULLETIN.

Items of Interest From Nearby Towns and Villages Contributed by the Bulletin's Corps of Correspondents.

Orangeburg.

R. P. Tolle is slowly recovering from a severe illness which confined him to his home for several weeks.

Miss Marie Emma Dixon of the Oakwood school, gave her scholars a generous treat of fruit, candy and nuts.

Mr. John Perkins, a well known and popular citizen of our valley village, is spending his Christmas with friends in Paris.

Our rural free delivery carrier No. 1, has a nice new wagon which is much more appropriate than the open buggy he formerly used.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Wilson and family spent Christmas in the country, partaking of Christmas dinner at the home of Mr. Charles Harrison.

Boone Phillips has returned from Grand Rapids, Mich., where he has been attending a veterinary college, for a Christmas week's visit.

Wm. Jones, a colored man employed by Chas. Harrison, caught one of the largest red foxes ever seen in this vicinity in a steel trap last week.

The late rain has made the supply of water sure for some time to come. The pool which Mr. L. M. Collis had excavated last fall is full to the brim.

Miss Fannie Osa Roe of the Bernard school was a pleasant visitor to friends and relatives here during Christmas week, attending the Politt-Bullock wedding.

Constable Clarence Dickson has a new-comer at his house—a boy—which makes two to his credit. He has now a pair of "kids," and as he cannot wear them, can warm his hands spanking them when they merit it.

Among various appropriate and acceptable Christmas remembrances from abroad received by the writer was a large cabinet photograph of the progressive, prominent and popular Sporting Editor of the Cincinnati Post, Ren. Mulford, Jr., with whom the writer first entered the journalistic field in the 70's.

Christmas passed off very quietly here, with a noticeable absence of drunkenness and rowdiness. Dr. Bain and wife had a tree and treat for a number of the neighboring children. Methodist Church gave Sunday school scholars a treat.

Reds and Blues of the Christian Church will have a supper later on. Mrs. Ella Alexander, Superintendent of colored Methodist Church Sunday school, gave the Sunday school scholars a nice treat.

The wind-storm last night no doubt did considerable damage throughout the State, but no serious destruction of property has yet been reported in the county.

A little job for the tanners here and there is the sum total of the Storm King's work in Mayesville.

In 1905.

At the beginning of a new year we extend to all a cordial greeting and hope that for all the year may be both happy and prosperous.

The past year has been a very satisfactory one for us and we wish to heartily thank all who have in any way contributed to this result.

We appreciate your favors and in 1905 we shall spare no effort to serve you even better than in the past in order to merit a continuance of your good will.

A MOST PECULIAR SALE OF

Women's Coats

$10

In the expenditure of Christmas shopping women were obliged to neglect their own needs, so this announcement should appeal to jaded purses. It also offers an unusual opportunity for the profitable investment of Christmas money.

About fifty stylish Coats are involved—not one of them in existence before Thanksgiving. It sounds absurd to say these Coats are worth $14 to $20 and we are selling them for $10, but coat selling time is over though wearing time has only fairly started.

There is a good proposition of the higher priced Coats up to $20, but of course earliest comers will have best choosing.

Impossible to give descriptions, for over twenty styles are included, several lengths, light, loose and semi-fitting effects in chevrons, tweeds, kerseys and broadcloths.

$14 to $20 Coats for $10—not an everyday chance.

We Wish to Extend Our Most Sincere Thanks to our friends and patrons for their patronage during the past year and especially to the many for their kind indulgence in the last few days of holiday shopping when we were so rushed, but trust they were rewarded by our efforts to please. We wish you all a happy and prosperous New Year in the coming of which we desire to make many improvements, and still advance in the selling of Guaranteed Clothes for men and boys, to our mutual benefit and comfort. With this ambition we beg of you a continuance of your liberal patronage.

MAYSICK.

A Pre-January First Statement.

Saturday ends the business year. On February the first we close our books for the year. That this store has made rapid strides is an open secret. We have tried our best to give to the people of Maysville the best store in this section. It has been our desire to carry the best of lines that the people can do their shopping at home. That our efforts have been appreciated we wish to make this statement: Our business has increased every month (with two exceptions) since we have been here. Estimating five days left in December we must sell $15,000 in January to exactly double our first year's business. A remarkable record, isn't it?

Besides our store we have encouraged other stores in Maysville to do better. We have only begun to do what we have laid out. Our greatest efforts are yet to come. Fifteen thousand dollars to sell in January and we must do it. We expect to have the largest rug and carpet sale ever held in this town; in fact nothing ever compared with it. On January the 2nd we will inaugurate our Hainline's toys are opened. Come and see them.

Mr. Oscar A. Pollitt and Miss Ola M. Bullock of this county will be married today at the Christian Church, Orangeburg.

A Christmas tree at the home of Mr. George Schroeder on West Third street took fire from the lighted candles and was consumed with all its contents.

Rev. H. D. Barrett of the National Association of Spiritualists, will deliver a lecture at the court house this (Wednesday) and Thursday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. Subject: "Is Spiritualism True?" The public cordially invited. There will be no charge for admission.

The management of the Washington in arranging for the engagement of "The Holy City," has secured the most impressive drama now on the stage. Intellectually conceived, dramatically constructed, powerfully acted and sumptuously staged, the play is noted for its complete and beautiful representations. To-night is the date.

At the county infirmary Christmas services were held on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor societies of the Central Presbyterian Church, Mr. J. B. Wood being the leader and Rev. J. C. Molloy speaking briefly on the 110th psalm. Presents of candy, handkerchiefs, tobacco and pipes for the old men were distributed and it was a very pleasant occasion for all who were present.

The Christmas entertainment of the Sunday school of the Central Presbyterian Church was well attended on the evening of December 26th in spite of the rainy weather. Light refreshments were served, candy was pulled and eaten and games were played to the accompaniment of a string band. Old and young went home well pleased with the holiday entertainment in the spacious parlors of the church.

Colonel W. W. Baldwin has sold his trotter, George M., to Mr. A. B. Comings of Mechanicsburg, Pa., for $2,500.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart of Flemingsburg was buried Saturday afternoon in the Maysville Cemetery.

The M. C. Russell Company did a handsome thing by presenting each of its employes with a suit of clothes for a Christmas present.

F. Devine, agent for Miss Emma Campbell, executor of T. C. Campbell's estate, sold a lot on Fifth street to Mrs. Anna Ryan for $205 cash.

Austin Rosenham Quigley will leave soon for Louisville where he goes to take the second year course in the Hospital College of Medicine.

Democrats of Rowan County have inducted County Attorney W. D. Young of Morehead for Representative in the Legislature from the Bath and Rowan district.

The old reliable Mason County Building and Saving Association have opened their books for subscription to the thirty-eight series. Apply to Thomas M. Russell or R. K. Hoeflich.

The Christian Sunday school pupils Monday evening contributed a large quantity of substantial for Maysville's poor children. Each one brought a contribution of some sort, and afterwards the little folks were entertained with games, songs and speeches.

UNSOLD BEAUTIES.

In our desire to raise the standard of furniture we bought a handsome line of Mahogany goods for the holiday trade and in our enthusiasm we bought too heavy and many of these lovely designs are unsold. Christmas comes but once a year and we have no intention of waiting until next Christmas to sell these beauties. Buying requires inducement. We thought the holiday season and the superb designs of these splendid pieces would offer sufficient inducement at the modest prices at which they were marked, but it seems not. Now we try less than cost prices. Genuine Mahogany $15 Chairs $10, genuine Mahogany $10 Chairs $6 and all other Christmas goods in proportion. Why don't you investigate this?

THE CHARITY BALL.

Brilliant Function Given By Maysville Commandery a Decided Success.

When the Knights Templar of Maysville Commandery No. 10 extends an invitation it is responded to in a goodly fashion. Last night's ball was no exception and "society folk" were out in great numbers to dance for the pleasure of it and incidentally for the sake of charity.

At 8 o'clock the Asylum was ablaze with lights from pit to dome. The large reception hall was comfortably filled with an audience mainly composed of the patronesses who had come early to enjoy the concert.

Weber's band is composed of artists and needs no further mention, being already in high favor with those who have heard it. The concert was put down for eight numbers, which showed a variety of theme and motive. One hour was set apart for this part of the entertainment, but the graciousness on the part of the orchestra in responding to the encores made the concert extend beyond the allotted time.

At 9:30 the ball was in full force. A flare of trumpets, a quick two-step played in military time, and the floor was comfortably filled with enthusiastic dancers. This was followed by a waltz, the dreamy, floating melody of which was a second invitation to the men and women who had gathered together to dance the night away, and in this fashion, first a two-step, then a waltz, once or twice interrupted by the lancers, the evening was soon over and the Charity Ball only a happy memory.

It would be impossible to give the names of all those present or in any accurate fashion do justice to the attractive gowns worn by the women. It is even more difficult to say who the "Belle of the Ball" was since at every ball there must always be one who stands alone as the Queen of the occasion, but it is fair to say that at last evening's function there were five young women who gracefully distributed their favors and who might have danced hours longer had there been time and music. They were Misses Alice and Harriet Dobyns, Imogene Ficklin, Madeline Wadsworth, Roberta Cox and her guest Miss Fischer of Cincinnati.

Miss Alice Dobyns' gown of white Paris muslin was a charming creation of beauty and daintiness. Miss Harriet Dobyns also wore white, an organdy trimmed in Valenciennes lace, Miss Ficklin's gown was likewise all lace and organdy, Miss Wadsworth in pale green, while Miss Cox was in happy contrast in a black gown of chiffon, to Miss Fischer who wore a stunning toilette made entirely of lace.

The banquet hall was open during the entire evening, where an elaborate collation was served.

In every respect the ball was a happy affair—giving pleasure to the pleasure-loving and bringing comfort to the poor.

CHARMING SOCIAL EVENT

Was the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Marriage of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Walton.

The celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frazee Walton at "Walton Place," near Germantown, last Thursday afternoon was a very charming social event. A large number of relatives and friends responded to the invitations.

Mrs. Dan Lloyd and Mrs. Welburn Reese received the guests in a graceful manner. Miss Ida Mae Tyler served punch, and Miss Louise Tyler had each guest to register, after which all repaired to the parlor and showered their congratulations upon the bride and groom of twenty-five years.

In the receiving line besides Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Walton were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Walton and Mr. Sam Walton.

The parlor looked very pretty. A large wedding bell hung in the center, decorated in mistletoe and white, to which ran festoons of white entwined with silver ropes.

During the reception Misses Anna and Bessie Cook and Miss Tucker rendered very beautiful music on the piano and mandolin. The hall was tastefully decorated in holly and mistletoe, the color effect being red.

The guests were invited to the dining-room to a delightful repast. The tables were beautifully decorated. The bride's cake stood in the center of one containing twenty-five candles and surrounded by a star of holly.

Mr. John R. Walton made an admirable toastmaster. Those that responded to his happy toast were: Mr. Evan Lloyd, Mr. Dan Lloyd, Mr. Tom Bell and Mr. S. D. Rigdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and letters and words of good cheer with congratulations from their many friends and relatives.
